

A woman with her hair pulled back, wearing a white short-sleeved hotel uniform with dark trim on the collar and cuffs, stands in a spa area. She is holding a wicker basket filled with folded white towels and a pink flower. The background is a wall of small, colorful mosaic tiles in shades of purple, blue, and gold. In the top right corner, there is a logo for 'CONSORZIO FIRENZE ALBERGO' featuring a stylized building icon above the text.
